

4-21 GRACE M. ADAMS 1984

Graveside services for Grace May Adams, 89, who died in Wheatland April 21, were held Tuesday in the Wheatland Cemetery at 3 p.m. with Rev. Delbert Dick officiating.

Adams was born Dec. 5, 1895 in Iowa where she spent her childhood years. She was the daughter of William and Annie Johnson.

In 1915 she moved with her parents to Wyoming where they homesteaded six miles west of Dwyer on Fish Creek. She and Claude Adams were married April 10, 1919. They lived with their 10 children on their ranch near Cottonwood Creek.

She was a member of the Rebekah Lodge, Laramie Peak Rock Hounds, Cottonwood Country Club and the Dwyer Homemakers.

Memorial contributions in her name may be made to the Platte Co. Memorial Hospital Nursing Wing.

Survivors include two sons: Bob Adams of Lander and Ray Adams of Princeton, Ill.; five daughters: Twyla Parlett of Casper, Ruth Miller of Riverton, Ruby Stone of Sabetha, Kans., Georgia Butler of Lillington, N.C., Ida Robertson of Baltimore, Md.; two sisters: Ethel Axford of Wheatland and Daisy Peeler of Cal., 23 grandchildren and numerous great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, two sons and a daughter.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
