

AKERBLADE, WALTER

NEWS ITEM: Clay "Tricky" Riggle, convicted slayer of Walter Akerblade and Irene Williamson received his sentence from Judge Sam Thompson and his execution date will be April first in the gas chamber at the State Penitentiary at Rawlins.

There is little doubt that but the case will be appealed, in which case the execution date will be delayed; it is highly possible that if Riggle does not receive any leniency from the higher courts that he will not be executed for nearly a year.

Riggle will be held in the State Penitentiary for the present time.
