ARCHER D. AKERS

Services for Archer D. Akers, 73, of Wheatland were held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at All Saints Episcopal Church with the Rev. Kale King officiating.

Akers died September 6, 1986 at the Converse County Memorial Hospital following a long illness. Born April 15, 1913 in Ardmore, Oklahoma, he was the son of Willie Mae and Irvine Akers.

On October 23, 1939 he married June Dodge and they made their home throughout the world as he served as a career officer in the Army. Following retirement from the service they made their home in Wheatland.

Survivors include his wife, June Akers of Wheatland, two sisters Billie Ruth McCharen of Ardmore, Okla; Lucille Wheeler of Shawnee Mission, Kansas; one son, George Akers and one daughter, Peggy Darling, both of Douglas. He is also survived by three grandchildren, Anita Finerty of Mainz, Germany, C.T. Akers and Tara Jo Darling of Douglas.

In lieu of flowers the family would appreciate memorials to All Saints Episcopal Church, Wheatland
