

ALLISON, PHYLLIS A. TWIFORD

June 17, 1929-April 19, 2000

Funeral services for Phyllis A. Allison, 70, were held Saturday, April 22, 2000, at 2 p.m. at the Platte Funeral Chapel in Wheatland, with Andy Gudahl, Minister of the First Christian Church officiating. Interment was held in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mrs. Allison died Wednesday, April 19, 2000, at the Wyoming Medical Center in Casper.

She was born June 17, 1929, in Oshkosh, Neb., the daughter of Leslie and Ruby Elizabeth (Wells) Twiford. She moved with her family to Glendo in 1931, living on a ranch in Cassa, Wyo.

She was reared and educated in Glendo, attending two years at Wheatland High School, graduating from Wheatland High School in 1947 as a member of the National Honor Society.

She worked for a year for Wheatland Lumber Company following graduation. She was married to Harold E. Allison on September 12, 1948 in Wheatland.

After their marriage, they lived on ranches in the Wheatland area and in California from 1957 to 1959.

She worked as a legal secretary for Fred Phifer, and then with insurance at the Stockgrowers Bank; retiring in 1969 due to medical reasons. She enjoyed baby-sitting in her home for 21 years.

In September 1998, she moved to Casper to be with her daughter.

She is survived by three children, Steve Allison of Baton Rouge, La., Donnie Allison of Wheatland, and Donna Marcotte of Casper; two sisters, Betty Dunham of Wheatland, and Cecil Shutleff of Colorado City, Texas, four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Phyllis was preceded in death by her parents; and her husband, Harold E. Allison on July 23, 1998.

Serving as pallbearers were Bill Vines, George Good, Keith Anderson, Drew Marcotte, George Bartholomew, John Suntych, Gene Hayes and Jerry Marcotte.

Memorials to the American Heart Association, 1807 Capitol Avenue, Suite 109, Cheyenne, WY 82001 would be appreciated by the family.

Platte Funeral Chapel was in charge of the arrangements.
