

ARMANN, ABRAHAM
October 3, 1872-April 4, 1936

In the passing away of Abraham Armann, Wheatland has lost a worthy and highly respected citizen.

He was born in Partsmouth, Ohio on October 3rd, 1872 and departed this life on April the 4th, 1936 at Wheatland, Wyoming, having reached the age of 63 years.

His family moved to Nebraska when he was 11 years old and located twelve miles south of Lincoln at Martell, Neb.

He married Ella F. Crosier March 5th, 1895, and in the year 1919, they moved to Wheatland, where he was engaged in business for several years.

Mrs. Armann passed away some four years ago, leaving him with the children to carry on. He never seemed to overcome his sense of loss of his dear companion, but never complained. He had been ailing for three years, enduring affliction with much fortitude.

He leaves to keep him in memory children, H. Roy, Mary, K. Harold. 1 son having preceded him in death whose name was George H. Armann.

The following relatives and friends who mourn his departure are Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Armann of Wheatland, Mr. and Mrs. J.E. Bohmont and H.E. Armann of Lebec, California and six grandchildren. Besides these, a sister, Mrs. Dora Bitten of Martell, Nebraska and a brother, Frank Armann of Wheatland.

He was a member of the Modern Woodmen of America and held in high esteem by the members of this order.

He joined the Methodist Episcopal church in Martell, Nebraska and when he came to Wheatland, transferred his membership to the Wheatland church. He served as a member of the official board and was ready to always do his part as a faithful member of the church.

“Servant of God well done
Thy glorious warfare’s past
The battle’s fought, the victorys
Won
And thou are crowned at last”.
