

Dwight L. Baron

June 1, 1945-June 2, 2000

Services for Dwight L. Baron, 55, of Wheatland, Wyo., will be held Wednesday, June 7, 2000 at 2 p.m. at the First Christian Church in Wheatland with Pastor Denzil G. Mauk of Wheatland Bible Church officiating. Military rites will be held at the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mr. Baron died Friday, June 2, 2000 at his home with his family by his side.

Dwight was born June 1, 1945, in McClusky, N.D., the son of Ernest and Elizabeth (Ockert) Baron. He lived on a farm in McClusky, N.D., until he moved to Bismarck, N.D. to attend school until the seventh grade. Then his family moved to Fargo, N.D. where he attended school until the eleventh grade.

At age 17, he decided to join the United States Marine Corps. He served four years with eighteen months in Vietnam. After being honorably discharged from the Marines, he returned to Fargo where he started working for Northern States Power.

On July 13, 1968, he married Jeanette L. Hampson in Warhead, Minn. They made their home in Fargo for about a year. In 1970, they moved to Center, N.D. where he worked for the Minnkota Power Plant. In 1978, he moved his family to Wheatland (as Dwight put it, GOD'S COUNTRY) where he worked at Laramie River Power Plant.

Dwight was an active member of the Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation and the National Rifleman's Association. Dwight enjoyed spending time with his family, especially watching his grandkids. His favorite hobbies were hunting, fishing and trapshooting.

(DLB you will always be loved, and missed dearly, and never forgotten!)

Grateful to have shared his life are his wife, Jeanette Baron of Wheatland; two daughters and sons-in-law, Tracie and Delane Haynes of Newcastle, Wyo. and Lisa and Chris Shaw of Torrington, Wyo.; four grandchildren, McKaylia and Brett Haynes of Newcastle; and Justin and Troy Shaw of Torrington; three sisters, Kathryn Gartner and Violet Montgomery both of Bismarck, N.D., and Gladys Willits of West Fargo, N.D.; and a brother, Arthur Baron of Fargo, N.D.

He was preceded in death by his parents; two sisters; and one brother.

Serving as pallbearers will be Calvin Willits, Don Schuette, Justin Schuette, Steve Anderson, Mick Mickelsen and Randy Jones. Honorary pallbearers will be Delane Haynes, Brett Haynes, Christ Shaw, Justin Shaw, Troy Shaw and Richard Hampson.

Memorials to the Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation or the American Cancer Society of Wyoming in care of Platte Funeral Chapel, P.O. Box 816, Wheatland, WY 82201 would be appreciated by the family.

Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland is in charge of the arrangements.
