

BLISS, ELISABETH F.
March 19, 1868-February 13, 1958

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday, February 18, at 2:00 p.m. from the Methodist Church in Wheatland for Elisabeth F. Bliss of Little Bear. Interment was made beside her husband in the Wheatland cemetery. Johnson Wright Bliss passed away in 1924.

Mrs. Bliss was born March 19, 1868 in Shelrock, Iowa and passed away in Cheyenne Memorial Hospital February 13, 1958, following an extended illness. She and her husband with their five children came to Wyoming in 1917 and homesteaded on Bear Creek, one mile east of the Snow ranch. When her husband passed away, her son, Jay, took over the ranch and has cared for his mother since that time.

She was a member of O.E.S. Chugwater, and was affiliated with the Methodist church. Rev. J.B. Milstead and Rev. B.B. Byus officiated at the funeral services.

She is survived by three sons, Jay of Little Bear, Percy of Kennewick, Wash., and Don of Folsom, Calif.; two daughters, Mrs. Faye Hix, Herlong, Calif. and Mrs. Neta Hurst, Frazier Park, Calif. Twelve grandchildren and fourteen great grandchildren also survive.

Pallbearers were Hoyt DuVall, Richard DuVall, Francis Gard, Rolla Remster, Robert Swinbank and Harry Dayton.
