

BURGESSON, ARTHUR JOHN
October 18, 1923-April 27, 1951

Friday, May 18, the body of Arthur John Burgessson was found in Guernsey Lake. He was 28 years old.

Born in Denver, Mr. Burgessson had been employed as a laborer on the Burlington railroad, but had been released from their employ three weeks prior to the finding of his body.

There were no marks of violence, therefore, it is believed he committed suicide. Services were held Monday and burial was made in the Wheatland cemetery.
