

BURNS, LEROY F.

October 30, 1915-January 20, 1968

Funeral services for LeRoy F. Burns, Upton, former resident of Wheatland, were held Tuesday, Jan. 23 at 10:30 a.m. Rev. Terri Allen and Rev. Nellie Woolery conducted the services and burial was in local cemetery. Serving as pallbearers were Don Cook, Sterling Bostwick, John Braunschweig, James Collins, Harold Garrett and James Shaw.

Mr. Burns passed away Thursday, January 20, in Denver, Colo., following a short illness. He was born Oct. 30, 1915 in Kiowa, Kans. He married Nina Huston May 23, 1937 at Wheatland. He resided here from 1924 to 1963, and at the time of his death was employed as an oil field worker by the True Drilling Co.

Survivors in addition to his wife, Nina of Upton, are two daughters, Mrs. Sid Jenkins, Jr. and Mrs. Warren Alloway, both of Dillon, Colo.; his mother, Mrs. Alma Bostwick, Wheatland; three brothers, Paul Burns, Rupert, Ida., Robert Burns, Sacramento, Calif., Edgar Burns, Wheatland; one sister, Mrs. Russell Monroe, Broadus, Mont., and four grandchildren.