

DALY, ALTA IRENE CHILDS
May 20, 1892-April 29, 1980

Alta Irene Daly, 87, died Tuesday, April 29, at the Platte County Memorial Hospital in Wheatland.

She was the daughter of George and Nancy Palmer Childs. She was born on May 20, 1892, in Simpson, Ks. She was married to James W. Daly on December 13, 1911, in Sedalia, Mo.

She moved with her parents to Missouri from Kansas as a young girl. It was here that she met her husband-to-be, J. W. Daly. After Alta and James were married, they lived in Missouri for a period of time and then they moved to Kansas. They were engaged in farming in Kansas and Missouri. In 1945, they moved to Wheatland to semi-retire. She has resided in Wheatland up until the time of her death.

She is survived by two daughters, Irene McCreary; of Wheatland and Helen Robbins of Wheatland; one brother Dude Childs of Los Angeles, Ca.; three granddaughters, Virginia Acord of Craig, Col, Judy Woolsey of Wheatland and Jeannie Wilcox of Lusk; and seven great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, James W. Daly, Feb. 20, 1959; three brothers and one sister.

Funeral services were held Friday, May 2, at 2 p.m. at the Schrader-Prell Funeral Chapel. The Rev. Delbert Dick officiated. Interment was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Serving as pallbearers were: Jim Bohl, Chet Acord, Charles Acord, Will Wilcox, Gordon Woolsey and Jay Shockley.

A MOTHER

A Mother is someone lovable
With countless thoughtful ways
Of putting joy and sunshine
Into ordinary days...

A Mother is someone helpful
Who more than does her part
And has the greatest gift of all-
An understanding heart...

A Mother is someone wonderful-
Wise and kind and true
In fact,
She's all those things and more
When she's a Mother like you!

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.
