

DALY, JAMES WILBERT
October 8, 1890-February 20, 1959

James Wilbert Daly was born in Harrisonville, Missouri, October 8, 1890, and passed away in the Platte County Memorial Hospital February 20, 1959. Mr. Daly had made his home here since 1945, and was for nine years, yard foreman for at Foster Lumber Company, but due to ill health, he retired.

Before coming to Wheatland, he had lived in Kansas, but spent most of his life farming in Missouri.

He is survived by his wife, Alta Irene; two daughters, Mrs. M.R. Williams and Mrs. M.W. McCreary, both of Wheatland; one brother, George Daly of Blue Mound, Kans.; one sister, Mrs. Hattie Bloom of Atlanta, Kans.; three grandchildren and one great grandchild. Two sisters preceded him in death.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J.B. Milstead from the Schrader Chapel at 2:00 p.m. Monday, Feb. 23. Interment was in the Wheatland cemetery, pallbearers being John Labertew, John Rutz, Ed Foreman, Ray Schad, Cleon Rinker and Roger Mills.