

DAVIS, BETTY LOUISE ADKINS

August 24, 1924-October 3, 1980

Services for Betty Louise Davis, 56, who died Friday, Oct. 3, 1980 at Natrona County Memorial Hospital in Casper, were held Monday at the United Methodist Church in Wheatland with the Rev. Virgil Lamm officiating.

She was born Aug. 24, 1924 in Marion, Ind., the daughter of Everett and Vera Adkins. As a youngster her family moved to California where Betty was raised and educated.

In 1948 she moved to Nebraska, and then to Wheatland in 1959. She met Harry Davis of Wheatland and they were married Jan. 14, 1967. Betty was a member of the Women of the Moose, and had been employed at Lidstrom Ready Mix Plant for 16 years.

Survivors include, besides her widower, Harry, her mother, Vera Adkins of San Diego, Calif.; nine sons, Eugene, Jerry, John and Randy Davis of Wheatland, Sidney and Mike Davis of Rawlins, Gary Davis of Casper, Donald Davis of Geg Harbor, Wash., and Topper Hollenbeck of Gillett; seven daughters, Paula Wilson, Kathleen Tittle, Kerrri Hitt and Kim Davis of Wheatland, Lila Shaw of Riverton, Harriet West of Commerce City, Colo. and Karen Caress of Homedale, Idaho; five brothers, one sister, 31 grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by an infant granddaughter and grandson, a brother, and her father.

Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

A memorial has been established to the Platte County Services for Seniors Center. Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
