

Frank T. Dearing, pioneer resident succumbs in Denver

1963

Frank T. Dearing, age 79, died in St. Anthony hospital in Denver February 13, 1963. He was born March 17, 1883 to Jared and Margaret Dearing and came to Wheatland in 1893. He was proprietor of the Palace Meat and Grocery for 42 years, and upon retirement in 1945 he moved to Denver.

Survivors are his wife Grace of Denver; three sons, Neil of Wichita, Kans., Dean of Denver and Glen of Laramie; a brother Harry of Wheatland and seven grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete at this time. The body will be brought to Wheatland by the Schrader Funeral home.