

Grace. T. Dearinger

9-29-1981
Grace Truman Dearinger, 91, died Tuesday, Sept. 29, 1981 at the Iverson Memorial Hospital in Laramie.

Grace, the daughter of James and Dora Williams McGrew, was born Dec. 9, 1889 in Nevada, Mo. She was raised and educated in Missouri, graduating from high school in Sheldon, Mo. She moved to the Wheatland area with her family in 1907 and taught school here for a short time. She met and married Frank T. Dearinger June 2, 1909. They and their three sons operated the Palace Market and Grocery until the early 1940s. They then moved to Denver in 1945 and operated rental properties. Her husband Frank died in 1963. She moved to Laramie in 1967 to spend her retirement years. She has resided there until the time of her death. She is a past member of the Central Presbyterian Church in Denver and the Congregational Church in Wheatland.

She is survived by her three sons, Neil Dearinger of Wichita, Kan., Dean Dearinger of Denver, Colo., and Joe Dearinger of Laramie; six grandchildren; and 10 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents and her husband.

Graveside services were conducted Thursday, Oct. 1, at 11 a.m. at the Wheatland Cemetery, with the Rev. Kenneth Saunders officiating. Interment was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

A memorial has been established to the Platte County Services for Seniors. The Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.
