

GEORGE DEEMER

12-21-1983

Services for George Deemer, 71, who died in Wheatland, Dec. 21, were held Dec. 24 in the Schrader-Prell Funeral Chapel at 2:30 p.m. with Al Goff and Paul Hughes officiating.

Deemer was born Jan. 14, 1912 in the state of Pennsylvania where he grew up. He came to Wyoming during the depression and worked for the Kirkbride and Middleswarth ranches. He then was employed by the City Bakery in Wheatland from which he retired in the early 1970s. He married Genevieve Evelyn Clevenger on March 10, 1944 in Cheyenne.

Survivors include his wife and a sister, Mary McKee of Pennsylvania.

He was preceded in death by one brother, Adam.

A memorial in his name has been established to the Platte County Senior Citizen's Center.

Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
