

DELANEY, ELIZA

?-July 13, 1917

Mrs. Eliza Delaney, who was found unconscious in her home at Guernsey from a stroke of apoplexy on the 8th inst. and who was brought to the hospital by Dr. Stevens, passed away on Sunday, never having regained consciousness. Funeral services were held at the Pepper mortuary Monday by Rev. A.T. Evans, and interment was made in the Wheatland cemetery. The aged lady was living with her crippled son at Guernsey and was a county charge.
