

Minnie Alice Griffin Dodge

December 18, 1944 – August 29, 2008

Minnie Alice Griffin Dodge of Central City, Colo., died Aug. 29, 2008 at the Hospice of St. John's in Wheatridge, Colo.

Alice was born Dec. 18, 1944 in Wheatland, Wyo., to George (Griff) Clinton Griffin and Tessie Miller Griffin.

She attended school in Wheatland.

Longtime Wheatland residents will remember Alice as a talented acrobat and dancer.

Alice enjoyed bowling, fishing, dancing and spending time with her daughter, grandson and many friends.

She was married to David Dodge and lived in Granby,

Colo., for a number of years and later moved to Central City, Colo. to be with her daughter Tani.

Survivors include her daughter Tani Lance of Central City, Colo.; grandson Christopher Lance of Fort Collins, Colo.; brothers Charles Williams Sr. of Wheatland; Donald (Pokey) Williams and wife Regina of Grand Junction, Colo.; Larry Griffin and wife Lorilei of McAllen, Texas; sister Carol Clifton and husband Dennis of Orchard, Neb.; Aunt Florence Shelton of Wheatland; and many nieces, nephews and friends.

At Alice's request no memorial services will be held.