

1988

Erin Dooley
Dooley loses battle with leukemia

Erin Dooley of Wheatland, 14 year-old victim of leukemia, died Friday.

She was diagnosed with having the disease in April 1986 and battled it ever since. Her leukemia went out of remission about one year ago and she underwent a bone marrow transplant at the Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research

Erin Colleen Dooley

1-29-1988

Erin Colleen Dooley, 14, of Wheatland died Friday, Jan. 29, 1988 at the Children's Hospital in Denver, Colo. She had been diagnosed in April 1986 with leukemia.

Erin was born September 17, 1973. She was an eighth grader at Wheatland Junior High School and a member of the First Christian Church in Wheatland. She lived in Wheatland all her life.

Survivors include her parents Mike and Stephanie Dooley of Wheatland; one brother Shawn Dooley of Garden City, Kansas; one sister Tracie Budd of Wheatland; grandparents Dortheia Dooley of Torrington and Paul and Euvonne Johnson of Denver; aunts Michele Morris of Wheatland, Lynn Fitzgerald of Guemsey, Linda Bargerone of Torrington and Sandra Nelin of Alabama.

Services were held at 1 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 2, 1988 at the First Christian Church in Wheatland with pastors Chet Shaw and Andy Gudahl officiating. Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Dean "Doc" Schroeder, David Budd, Bob Morris, Larry Snook, Steve Snook and Terry Carsrud.

Contributions to the Erin Dooley Memorial Fund (fund for families of children with catastrophic illnesses) are being accepted.

Schrader Funeral Home of Cheyenne was in charge of the arrangements.