

DORAN, CLARICE

?-May 1916

Mrs. Clarice Doran, who came to Wheatland about two months ago to accept a position as waitress at the Globe hotel, and who shortly afterwards was stricken with an attack of heart trouble, passed away on Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Doran was 20 years of age, only recently having been married, her husband holding a position in the Camfield hotel in Greeley.

A sister of the deceased, Helen Gerard, was called here from the family home at Price, Utah, on account of the fatal illness, who, together with the husband, Chas. J. Doran, was present at the bedside during the final illness. Mrs. Doran made many friends during her short residence in Wheatland on account of her sweet disposition and beautiful character, and the heartfelt sympathy of the community goes out to the bereaved relatives.

Funeral services were conducted on Wednesday forenoon at the Catholic church, and interment took place in the Wheatland cemetery.
