

DUNGEY, MARY STACK
November 28, 1865-February 21, 1955

Mrs. Mary Dungey, age 89, a resident of Sunrise since 1905, passed away in a local hospital Monday, February 21, following an extended illness. She had been confined to the hospital since being brought to Wheatland by ambulance last January 24.

The deceased was born in Barbo, Wisconsin November 28, 1865. Her only son, John, preceded her in death in 1944. Survivors include a brother, Joe Stack, Tower, Minn.; two sisters, Mrs. Anna Hadley, Virginia, Minn., and Mrs. Elizabeth Wiler, Los Angeles, Calif.

Last rites were held yesterday (Wednesday) at two o'clock at the Schrader chapel in Wheatland with the Rev. Lee Burton of Sunrise officiating. Burial was in the Wheatland cemetery. Casket bearers were Ralph Davis, Ray Lewis, Hugh Lynch, S.H. Whitney, George DeFond, and Harry Runser.
