

10-23 DORA BESSIE DuVALL 1984

Services for Dora Bessie DuVall, 87, who died at her home in Wheatland, Oct. 23 were held in the First Christian Church, Friday, Oct. 26 at 2:30 p.m. with the Reverend Virgil Lamm officiating.

DuVall was born March 14, 1897, in Davis County, Iowa, the daughter of Samuel and Mary Blumer. She spent her early years in Davis County.

She and William DuVall were married in Albia, Iowa, Feb. 10, 1915. Shortly after their marriage they came to Wyoming where they homesteaded in Laramie County.

They returned to Iowa for a short period of time before moving to Chugwater, where they remained until 1940 at which time they moved to Wheatland where they remained and spent their retirement years. Mr. DuVall died in 1980.

Survivors include two sons: Leo DuVall of Hamilton, Mont.; and Russell DuVall of Hanna; four daughters: Mary Young of Torrington; Betty Painter of Green River; and Bonnie McCashland and Mabel Snook both of Wheatland; 31 grandchildren; and several great grandchildren.

Besides her husband she was preceded in death by one son, two grandsons and 15 brothers and sisters.

Memorial contributions in her name may be made at the Platte County Senior Citizens Center.

Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.