

Louise "Cookie" Faris

1-19-2003

Funeral services for Louise "Cookie" Faris, 79, were held Jan. 23 at First Christian Church with Pastor Andy Gudahl and Reverend William Massey of the Southern Baptist Church of Medicine Bow officiating. Interment was at Wheatland Cemetery.

Mrs. Faris died Jan. 19 at Iverson Memorial Hospital in Laramie.

Cookie Faris was born July 24, 1923, in Hayland, Neb., the daughter of Albert and Alice (Aulrich) Kroll.

She graduated from Carpenter High School in Carpenter, Wyo. May 6, 1941.

She attended Wyoming Beauty School in Casper and graduated Feb. 7, 1942, and began working in Burns, Wyo., March 5, 1942.

On Sept. 7, 1943 she married Bob Warren of Cheyenne. Warren was killed in the line of duty during World War II.

Cookie married John Faris in Green River, Wyo., May 6, 1945.

She and her husband lived in various communities in southeast Wyoming, and duded horses, guided hunters and rented boats out to fisherman.

Cookie moved to Wheatland in 1982 and worked for Green Thumb Senior Services, babysat and provided extended care for her mother.

She enjoyed quilting, embroidery and doing things for others. She attended First Christian Church.

Cookie is survived by six children, Sylvia Parvin and husband Allan of Rock River, Albert Faris and wife Betty, Allen and wife Leslie all of Laramie, George Faris and wife Cheri of Wheatland, April Sims and husband Scott of McFadden, Wyo. and Grady Faris of Glenrock; and a sister, Wanda Beaver.

Memorials to Project SAFE, inc., Cookie Faris Scholarship Fund, P.O. Box 8, Wheatland, WY 82201 or to Services for Seniors, P.O. Box 283, Wheatland, WY 82201 would be appreciated by the family.
