

FERGUSON, ALBERT L.

1839-January 30, 1928

The funeral for Albert L. Ferguson, who died Wednesday, January 30, was held from the Masonic Temple, with that lodge in charge, on Friday. Burial was made in the Wheatland cemetery with the Watson Mortuary in charge.

Mr. Ferguson was one of the early pioneers of this section, living in the Sibylee country, in an early day, being one of those who helped make that section one of the best ranching districts in Wyoming. At the time of his death, Mr. Ferguson made his home in Denver.
