

FOREMAN, VELMA BRADNEY

June 14, 1893-November 9, 1965

Many were saddened to hear of the death of Velma B. Foreman on Nov. 9, 1965. Mrs. Foreman, a Wheatland resident since 1929, succumbed in Platte County Memorial Hospital following a brief illness. She was born in Hildreth, Nebr. on June 14, 1893 and resided in Rock Springs, Wyo. from 1919 until moving to Wheatland. She was a member of the Episcopal church and the V.F.W. auxiliary.

Services will be conducted by Rev. Theodore Foster at the United Church of Christ on Friday, Nov. 12 at 11:00 a.m. with interment in the local cemetery. The body will lie in state at the Schrader Chapel until 10:00 a.m. on Friday.

Serving as casket bearers will be George Hugh Good, William Jones, Clark Haeberle, James Bohl, Zack Phifer and Fred Phifer. Friends who prefer may contribute to the Platte County Memorial Hospital Memorial fund.

Relatives left to mourn the death of their loved one include her husband, J.E. Foreman of Wheatland; daughter, Mrs. Norris (Ruth) Hartwell, Great Falls, Mont.; son, Frank Spurgeon Davis, Las Vegas, Nev.; step-son, James Foreman, Cheyenne; sisters, Mrs. Pluma Copley, Wheatland, and Mrs. Zona Sumner, Orem, Utah and two granddaughters, Beth and Jane Hartwell. One son preceded her in death.