

10-30-1987 Donald W. Forwood

Donald W. Forwood, 72, died Friday, Oct. 30, 1987 in Phoenix, Ariz.

Services were held Nov. 2 at 10 a.m. at the Schrader Chapel with Father Kale F. King officiating. Interment was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Born Sept. 30, 1915 in Scottsbluff, Neb., Forwood lived in Cheyenne for 45 years with prior residence in Wheatland.

He married Irene Doherty on Jan. 25, 1942 in Sidney, Neb.

He was a veteran of World War II, having served as a bomber instructor for the Army Air Force Air Training Command.

Forwood owned an International Harvester dealership in Cheyenne and the Indian Village Motel. He also was an estimator for three moving companies in Cheyenne.

He was affiliated with the Episcopal Church and a member of the Masonic orders, a past master of the Acacia Lodge No. 11, 32nd Degree KCCH of Wyoming, a member of Consistory No. 1, Frontier Days Heels. He served on various Frontier Days committees and as chute boss for Chute No. 9.

He is survived by his wife; three children, Jon Forwood of Cheyenne, Don W. Forwood II of Glendale, Ariz., and Ann Forwood of Tuscon, Ariz; his mother, LaVerne Forwood of Wheatland; a sister, Jean Crawford of Cheyenne; and four grandchildren.

Friends who wish may contribute to All Saints Episcopal Church in Wheatland.