

E. LaVerne Forwood

9-6-1998

Graveside services and inurnment for E. LaVerne Forwood, 101, were held Wednesday, September 9, 1998, at 2 p.m. in the Wheatland Cemetery in Wheatland, Wyo., with Father Cliff Moore of All Saint's Episcopal Church officiating.

Mrs. Forwood died Sunday, September 6, at the Life Care Center in Cheyenne, Wyo. LaVerne was born March 30, 1897, in Harvard, Neb., the daughter of S.B. and Emma (Herrington) McBride. She attended school in Nebraska and on August 29, 1914 she married W.B. "Dick" Forwood in Fall City, Neb. They farmed for a few years in Nebraska before moving to Glendo, Wyo. in March of 1918 to homestead. They later moved to Wheatland and owned and operated the Standard Station until Mr. Forwood's death in 1953. Mrs. Forwood moved to the Life Care Center in Cheyenne in 1995. LaVerne was a member of the All Saint's Episcopal Church, The Women's Guild of All Saint's and a 50 year member of Order of Eastern Star. She enjoyed playing bridge, crocheting and knitting.

Mrs. Forwood is survived by five grandchildren, Beverly Preuit of Wheatland, Larry LaFollette of Boise, Idaho, Jon R. Forwood of Cheyenne, Don Forwood II of Phoenix, Ariz. and Ann Forwood of Tuscon, Arizona; a daughter-in-law, Irene Forwood of Cheyenne; eight great grandchildren; six great-great grandchildren; a niece, Maxine Ginther of Mitchell, Neb.; a very special "good" neighbor and friend, A. Edward Kendig of Wheatland; several nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband, William B. "Dick" Forwood in 1953; a daughter, Jean Crawford; a son, Don Forwood; three sisters; and two brothers.

Memorials to Platte County Memorial Hospital, Family Comfort Room, 201-14 Street, Wheatland, WY 82201 or to All Saint's Episcopal Church, P.O. 997, Wheatland, WY 82201, would be appreciated by the family.

Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland is in charge of the arrangements.
