

from the ranch.

How it all happened was never definitely known, but it was an experience from which Mr. Doss never fully recovered. Grief stricken for weeks, it was a long time before he could reconcile himself to the inevitable.

Funeral services were conducted in the Masonic building at Wheatland by Chugwater Lodge, No. 23, of which the deceased was a charter member, J.R. Milsted, Junior Warden, acting as Chaplin, and the body laid to rest by the side of his wife who had preceded him almost 25 years.

The Watson & Dennis Funeral Home was in charge.

Acting pallbearers were: Bert Morrison, Hugh McDonald, Gus Miller, Mangus Larson, E.M. Hedges and Henry Gustafson.

Honorary pallbearers: Ed. Banks, Robert M. Grant, Wm. Wilde, F.B. Stanfield, A.R. Bastian and D.M. Carley. Mr. Carley, on account of sickness, was unable to be present.

He leaves to mourn, one son, Nedmond, of Chugwater; a sister, Myra Bachelder, and her daughter, Hazel Bachelder Dunn of Denver, other relatives in Vermont, as well as a host of friends.
