

Dustin Michael Finnerty

December 14, 1991 – January 11, 2022

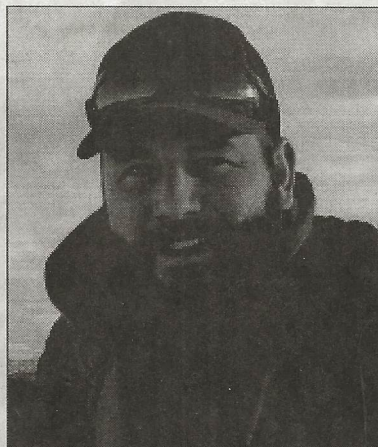

SINCLAIR – Dustin was the son of Martin Daniel Finnerty and Brigette Melanie (Finnerty) Henion. Thanks to his grandma Anita Finnerty, his first onesie sported the Denver Broncos logo. It was soon traded in for a wrestling singlet, and Dustin was on his way to a very successful USA and high school wrestling career over the next 15 years.

Dustin won multiple USA Freestyle and Greco Roman state championships. He also won the Wyoming Governor's award in 2008. Dustin was a four time high school state wrestling championship placer, capping it off with his state championship in 2010. At age six, Dustin began a ritual that would continue throughout his wrestling career, giving his gold medals away to kids who didn't have one. When his father asked why he was doing that, he said "look how happy it makes him, and I've got more at home." His love for others shined in everything Dustin did.

Dustin loved the outdoors and had a passion for sharing it with those he loved. This included traveling, camping, fishing, hiking, hunting and just being in the mountains enjoying the land.

On June 17, 2017 Dustin married April Adamson and became a stepfather to Katlyn and Tripp. He loved being a stepfather more than anything. The family traveled extensively and lived life fully. When Dustin and April showed up for any occasion, they always sported coordinated celebratory outfits and enough excitement for all. April and Dustin were inseparable and shared a bond that was undeniable.

Dustin started a career in the oil and gas industry after high school. Most recently he worked for Phillips 66 in southern Wyoming. Dustin had such pride in his work, and had the utmost respect for his supervisors and coworkers.

Dustin is survived by his wife April Finnerty, step daughter Katlyn Vigil, stepson Tripp Vigil, father Martin (Linda) Finnerty, mother Brigette (John) Henion, brother Martin Shea (Terra) Finnerty, sisters Fawn (Russ) Tafoya and Anita Finnerty and Nicole (Josh) Miller, in-laws Mark and Teri Adamson, brother in-law Levi Admanson, sisters in-law Tracy Gieseler and Jennifer Krance, nephews Owen Tafoya, Austin, Arrow and Atlas Finnerty, niece Macy Tafoya, Grandmothers Anita Finnerty and Hazel Roberts, and many aunts, uncles and cousins.
