

HACKARD, MILES AUSTIN
April 12, 1890-April 20, 1965

Last rites for Miles Austin Hackardk, 75, who died in the Colorado General Hospital in Denver on April 20, 1965, will be held April 24, at the Schrader Chapel at 10:30 a.m., with Rev. Clifford Polson officiating. Interment will be in the Wheatland cemetery with Robert Straw, Ed Foreman, George Griffin, Russell Fish, Bernard Dowen and Harold Hobson acting as casket bears.

Mr. Hackard was born on April 12, 1890. He was associated with Bob Straw in the automobile business from 1922-1942 in Wheatland. He then resided in Cheyenne several years before moving to Denver. He retired in 1950, and was a vetran of World War I and a member of the American Legion.

Relatives left to mourn are his son Jack of Sacramento, Calif. And a sister Naomi Davis of Cody, Wyo.