

Clyde Henry Hohnholt

August 25, 1930 – March 31, 2010

Clyde Henry Hohnholt passed away on March 31, 2010 in Cheyenne, WY.

The son of Oliver (Sport) and Ruth Hohnholt, Clyde was born on August 25, 1930; he was raised and educated in Wheatland, Wyoming.

He married Faye Belden on July 31, 1950, and they had four children. He worked for several companies in the Casper area including Superior Oil. For the 15 years preceding his retirement, he worked in Saudi Arabia for Bechtel Construction as a superintendent for the construction of roads and runways. While working overseas, he and his wife enjoyed opportunities to travel to many parts of the world. In addition to travel, he enjoyed hunting, fishing, and collecting antiques.

Clyde is survived by his wife Faye, two sons, Kim (Betty) of Firestone, CO; and Reed (Toni) of Port Hadlock, WA; two daughters, Noelle Dorn of Vancouver, WA, and Denyse Hohnholt of Cheyenne, WY; six grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held at 1:00 p.m. on April 17, 2010, at the First Christian Church in Wheatland officiated by Pastor Tim Ricker.
