

INGALLS, SCOTT C.

January 1, 1895-November 30, 1956

Scott C. Ingalls, 61, prominent Wheatland real estate and insurance man, died at the William Irvine Memorial Home last Friday following ill health for the past three years.

Mr. Ingalls had resided in Wheatland since 1938 and prior to that had lived in Thermopolis. He was born January 1, 1895 in Pelican Island, Minn.

Final rites were conducted Tuesday at 2 p.m. at the Wheatland Episcopal church with the Rev. Kale King officiating. The Masonic order conducted graveside services and burial was in the Wheatland cemetery. Uniformed members of the Commandery served as escorts.

Survivors include his wife, Viola; his mother, Mrs. B.F. Leonard of Moorhead, Minn., and a sister, Mrs. Billy Emerson, also of Moorhead.

Mr. Ingalls was a member of the Episcopal church: AF & AM No. 16 of Wheatland, Knights Templar, Royal Arch Masons and Korein Shrine, and was a past patron of the Order of the Eastern Star.

Pallbearers were Perry Brown, William I. Sutherland, Pat McGuire, Carl Preuit, Jay Cross and Ted Kruger.

The Schrader funeral home had charge of arrangements.
