

16-11 C. L. "RED" KING 1986

Services for Clarence Lyle "Red" King, 76, who died in Loveland, Colo., Oct. 11, 1986, were held in the United Church of Christ in Wheatland at 2:30 P.M., Oct. 15 with Dr. James Vuocolo officiating.

Clarence Lyle King was born in Grafton, Neb., March 6, 1910, the son of Cleveland and Clara (Swartz) King. He was reared and educated in Grafton, graduating from high school there. In 1935 he worked on a cattle drive which brought him to Wyoming. He then worked on the Small Ranch for a time.

He and Elizabeth Taylor were married in Laramie Aug. 15, 1937. They ranched on the Taylor Ranch on the Deadhead and in 1949, took over the ranch where they remained until his retirement in 1986.

He was a member of the Congregational Church of Grafton, the Masonic Lodge, and the Farm Bureau, of which he was Platte Co. President for several terms.

He is survived by his wife Elizabeth King, one son Tom King and his wife Luëtta all of Wheatland, by four brothers: Clifford King of California, Lloyd King of Oregon, Floyd and Condon King of Nebraska, one sister, Carmen Lewis of Colorado and four grandchildren.

Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
