

Pamela Joyce Kuck, 1956-1995 8-7-95

Services for Pamela Joyce Kuck, 39, were held Monday, August 7 at the First Christian Church in Casper, Wyoming, with Dr. Bryant Badger officiating.

Ms. Kuck died at home on August 2, 1995. She was born January 27, 1956 in Boise, Idaho to John and Shirley Kuck. She attended schools in Wheatland and Billings, Montana, graduated from the University of New Mexico, and was employed as an accountant in the restaurant industry until illness forced her early retirement.

Since Pamela was a diabetic from the age of 10, much of her life in recent years was devoted to increasing public awareness of this debilitating disease. In 1989, she founded the Pam Kuck Transplant Fund in order to provide funding for pancreas transplants for people with diabetes.

She is survived by her fiancé, Rick Conwell, her parents, three sisters, Sue Junkert of Billings, Montana, Cinda Berger and Wendi Bovaird of Wheatland, and a brother, Doug Kuck of Cheyenne, Wyoming. She is also survived by numerous nieces, nephews, aunts and uncles, and was preceded in death by her maternal and paternal grandparents.

Pamela was an avid cookbook collector, a wonderful crafter, and an avid chef.

In lieu of flowers, the family has requested that memorial contributions be made to The Pam Kuck Transplant Fund, c/o First Interstate Bank, P.O. Box 40, Casper, Wyoming, 82601.

Under the direction of Memorial Chapel in Casper, cremation has taken place.
