

MARTIN, LLOYD ALVIN
August 9, 1908-December 1, 1950

Services were conducted by Mr. C.E. Henry at the Schrader chapel Wednesday, at 2 p.m. for a former Wheatlandite, Lloyd (Todd) Martin who died at Aspen, Colo. Interment was in the Wheatland cemetery.

For several years he was in business here as a partner in Martin and Marker Motors.

Mr. Martin, who had gone recently to Colorado in the hope of improving his health, is survived by his wife, Ollie, Carmichael, Calif.; a daughter, Marianne Martin of Wheatland; a stepdaughter, Mrs. Dayton Patrick, Pendleton, Ore.; two brothers, Al Martin of Somonauk, Ill., and B.A. Martin of Portland, Ore.; a sister, Mrs. C.M. Colson, Aspen, Colo.; and one step grandchild survive.

Pallbearers were Vernon Cook, G.C. Griffin, John Carey, Darrow Blow, Robert Lowry and Wallace Baker.