

MILLER, MARION BERT

January 30, 1882-October 13, 1954

A sudden heart attack Wednesday claimed the life of Marion Bert Miller at his home in Chugwater. Mr. Miller was a retired rancher, and had lived at Chugwater for 39 years since coming to Wyoming from his native state of Missouri.

Family members who remain are his wife, Agnes May of Chugwater, three sons, Alva and Ed of Chugwater and Don of Cheyenne; a daughter, Mrs. Frank Rumsey of Wheatland; two brothers and two sisters, Joe Miller, Ontario, Calif., Roy Miller, Webeaux, Mont., Mrs. Gertrude Stalling, Hollywood, Calif., and Mrs. Myrtle Boyles, Kansas City, Mo.; also ten grandchildren. One daughter preceded him in death.

Bert Miller was born at Guildford, Mo., January 30, 1882, and was married December 8, 1907 at Krem, N.D. He was a member of the Chugwater Baptist church.

The Rev. J.B. Milstead and the Rev. LeRoy Gross of Chugwater will be the officiating ministers at the final rites which will be held at Schrader's chapel Saturday afternoon at 2:00 p.m. Burial will be in the Wheatland cemetery. Pallbearers will be Cliff Cozad, George Smith, Irvin McConnell, Fred Steinacker, Ed Vineyard, and George Waln.
