

William H. Morrison Passes Away Here Sunday Evening

3-19-1939
William Hull Morrison, one of Wheatland's prominent citizens for more than thirty years, passed away here Sunday evening, March 19. Mr. Morrison had been in failing health for a number of years but his condition did not become critical until the past few weeks.

Mr. Morrison was born and reared in Flemingsburg, Kentucky and was the son of Rev. and Mrs. William Morrison. On May 17, 1898 he was married to Adah Deming at Mount Olive, Kentucky and to this union one son, Deming, was born. In June 1903, Mr. and Mrs. Morrison and son moved to Wheatland where Mr. Morrison was manager of the Wheatland Roller Mills for twenty-one years. He later opened a real estate and insurance office in which business he has been engaged until his death.

Mr. Morrison was a member of the Christian church, being a charter member of the Wheatland church. He was also a member of the Masonic Lodge and the Lions club.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Adah Morrison, one son, Deming Morrison of Alhambra, California, three grandchildren, Allen D., Harry W. and Joan Morrison, one brother James of Sarasota, Florida, one sister, Mrs. Anna Cochran of Kentucky, one nephew, four nieces and several grand-nieces and nephews, all of Kentucky.

Funeral services were held this afternoon (Thursday) from the Morrison residence with Rev. Wilbur P. Wood of the Methodist church officiating. Interment was made in the Wheatland cemetery with Watson and Dennis in charge of arrangements.
