

Walter Mucha
June 21, 1929 - September 19, 2019

Walter Mucha SSG (RET) was born in Chicago, Illinois and left this planet Earth at the VA Hospital in Cheyenne, Wyoming after serving his country from 1948-1975.

His family immigrated from Poland with 8 children. Mucha learned to fish on Calamet Lake. At 14 he left school to go to work in order to help the family.

After joining the U.S. Army before he was legally of age, he served in Korea twice. It was there he received a stomach and leg wound which resulted in receiving the Purple Heart.

Mucha was also stationed in Stuttgart, Germany where met Rita Habicht in 1964 and married her after only a two-week courtship.

He retired from Ft. Wainwright, Alaska where he was stock control and supply clerk.

Those left to mourn him are his wife Rita (Wheatland), daughters Maria (Mike) Mucha of Texas, Patricia (George) Mucha-Johnson, Wheatland, Renate (Albert) Mucha-Kennedy, Washington. He was pre-deceased by his parents and all of his siblings.
