

Dies From Burns
Received Over
Memorial Day

Funeral Services for Lillian R. Neilson, 58, of Loveland, Colorado, were held Tuesday, June 20, 1972 at 10:00 a.m. Mrs. Neilson died Friday, June 16, 1972, at the Carbon County Memorial Hospital in Rawlins of the burns she sustained over the Memorial Day week-end at the Seminoe Reservoir, when the stove she was lighting, blew up in her face. Her husband T.C. Neilson, also injured in the accident, survived the fire.

Mrs. Neilson was born in L.A. California.

Mrs. Neilson had lived in Loveland for the past several years, and had been employed as a Dep. County Clerk by Larimer, County in Colorado. She had also lived in Calif., Lusk, Wyo. and Scottsbluff, Neb.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Neilson has one daughter surviving. The daughter's name is Mrs. Martha Scoles of Loveland, Colo. Mrs. Neilson also has two sisters surviving: Mrs. Lucille Webb, of L.A. Calif. and Mrs. Edith Regnall of Reno, Nevada. There are three grandchildren also surviving.

The services were held at the Trinity Methodist Church in Loveland. Graveside services were held at 2:00 p.m. at the Wheatland Cemetery.