

NELSEN, DELIA BLANCHE ZARECKY

April 27, 1906-July 7, 1992

Mass for Christian Burial for Delia Blanche Nelsen, 86, was held Friday, July 10, 1992, at 10:00 a.m. at Saint Patrick's Catholic Church in Wheatland with Father John Savio as Celebrant.

Vigil for the deceased was held Thursday, July 9, at 7:00 p.m. at the Saint Patrick's Church. Interment will be in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mrs. Nelsen died Tuesday, July 7, 1992 at the Platte County Memorial Nursing Home following a short illness.

She was born April 27, 1906 in Iowa City, Iowa. She was the daughter of Joseph and Helen (Kulhavy) Zarecky. She was reared and educated in Ward, South Dakota. She married Albert Andrew Nelsen on June 10, 1931 in Elkton, South Dakota. They lived in Flandreau, Brookings and Sioux Falls, South Dakota and finally, to Sioux City, Iowa where they retired.

They moved to Wheatland in 1978 where she remained a resident until the time of her death. She was a member of Catholic Daughters of America in Sioux Falls and the Saint Patrick's Church in Wheatland.

She is survived by her husband, Albert of Wheatland, and one daughter, Joyce Larscheid and a son-in-law, Jon Larscheid, both of Wheatland. Survivors also include six grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, four sisters, five brothers and two grandchildren.

Serving as pallbearers were Jon Larscheid, Jr., Jim Larscheid, Tom Larscheid, Craig Patton, Allen Cochran, and Steve Graves.

A memorial to the Platte County Memorial Nursing Home would be appreciated by the family.

The Platte Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
