

NESKE, MOLLIE
1884-November 1910

Mrs. Paul Neske, who had been sick from typhoid fever for several weeks, passed away at the family home northeast of town on Friday night. Funeral services were held at the home on Sunday, and interment was made in the Wheatland cemetery. Besides the husband, the deceased is survived by several small children.