

NEWELL, JOSEPH
February 7, 1877-August 29, 1953

Joseph Newell, age 76, passed away in Laramie last Saturday following a brief illness. He had lived at Little Bear since 1903 where he was engaged in ranching and raising sheep. For the past four years, he had made his home in Wheatland.

Mr. Newell was born in England on February 7, 1877. He was a member of the Chugwater Masonic O.E.S. and was also a member of the Episcopal church.

Left to mourn his passing are his wife, Priscilla, one daughter, Mrs. MaBelle Bink of Laramie and one grandchild.

Final rites were conducted at the Schrader chapel on Tuesday afternoon of this week at 2 p.m. with the Rev. Kale King officiating. Burial was in the Wheatland cemetery with Masonic graveside services.

Pallbearers were Masonic Lodge members: Max Pensold, Roy DuVall, Fred Cashner, Paul Dearcorn, Russell Staats and Herman Schnacker.
