Annie Erma Robinson

6-8-1990

Annie Erma Robinson, 82, died Saturday, June 8, at the Converse County Memorial Hospital in Douglas following a lengthy illness. No public funeral service was held.

Annie Erma Robinson was born Jan. 17, 1909 in Capitol, Mont., the daughter of George and Euterpa (Reeves) Woodward. As a young girl, she came to Casper with her parents where she was reared and educated.

She graduated from high school in Casper and then attended the University of Wyoming, receiving her teaching certificate. She taught in rural schools near Alcova, Wyo., and in the Laramie Peak area.

She was married to Charles A. Robinson on Dec. 17, 1938 in Wheatland. They lived on a farm and sheep ranch in the Wheatland area. She attended the Baptist