

Eldor Andrew Sailer

12-31-1991

Funeral services for Eldor Andrew Sailer, 76, were held Friday, Jan. 3, 1992 at 2 p.m. at Trinity Lutheran Church in Wheatland, with Pastor Randall L. Golter officiating. Interment followed in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mr. Sailer died Tuesday, Dec. 31 at the Platte County Memorial Hospital in Wheatland following a sudden illness.

He was born Dec. 9, 1915 in Krem, N.D., the son of Adam and Pauline (Sailer) Sailer. He was reared and educated in rural schools in the Krem area. He was married to Emma Haus on Jan. 19, 1940 in Hazen, N.D. The couple farmed in the Hazen area from 1941 to 1952. He began working in the construction business, and moved to Wheatland in 1955 where he continued, working in the construction industry in various communities in Wyoming. He always returned to Wheatland which he considered home, and remained here until the time of his death. He was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church.

He is survived by his wife, Emma, of Wheatland, and six children, Roger Sailer of Loveland, Colo., Duane Sailer of Glendo, Larry Sailer of Midland, Tex., and Bonna Goddard, Linda Lay and Edie Ryff, all of Wheatland. Two sisters, four brothers, 15 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren also remain.

He was preceded in death by his parents, two sisters, four brothers and one grandchild.

Serving as pallbearers were Chad Sailer, Daniel Sailer, Troy Lay, Roger Baker, Steve Kelly, Dave Bye, and Clayton Cochran and David Noyce.

Serving as honorary pallbearers were the members of Trinity Lutheran Church. A memorial to Trinity Lutheran Church or the choice of the donor would be equally appreciated by the family.

The Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland was in charge of the arrangements.
