

Eleanor (Nellie) Tadlock

5-9-1991

Funeral services for Eleanor (Nellie) Tadlock, 80, will be held Monday, May 13, at 10 a.m., at the Platte Funeral Chapel in Wheatland, with the Rev. Karin E. Wade of the All Saints Episcopal Church officiating. Interment will follow in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mrs. Tadlock died Thursday, May 9 at the Platte County Memorial Hospital in Wheatland.

She was born Jan. 23, 1911 in Louisville, Colo., the daughter of Henry and Margaret (Allison) Smith. She was reared and educated in Louisville, where she graduated from high school. She also attended and graduated from Parks Business School in Denver.

She was married to Martin Riley Tadlock on Aug. 28, 1932, in St. Francis, Kans. She moved to Bosler, Wyo., in 1945, where she owned and operated the Bosler Mercantile.

She retired in the early 1960's because of ill health. She later moved to the Wheatland area in 1976, and made their home on the Wallis Ranch, and then moved into town, where she resided until her death.

She is survived by her children, Linda Wallis of Wheatland and Martin R. Tadlock of Canton, Mich. Two sisters, Emily Moore of Phoenix, Ariz., and Billie Lucas of Denver, five grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren also survive.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband on May 16, 1989, and three sisters, Mary Black, Margaret Shaffer and Maria Philp.

Serving as pallbearers will be Clint Wallis, Clyde Kelly, Clay Wallis, and Bruce Bauman. A memorial to the Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children, Virginis Street at Fairfax, Salt Lake City, Utah, 84103, would be equally appreciated by the family.

The Platte Funeral Chapel is in charge of arrangements.

Family and friends may call at the funeral home Sunday (today) from noon to 6 p.m.
