

TATE, EDWIN OLIN
August 16, 1884-March 26, 1955

Last rites were held at the Wheatland Methodist church Wednesday afternoon for Edwin Olin Tate, a resident of Platte County since 1917, who died at Spencer hospital in Lusk, early Saturday morning, following a three-week illness. Mr. Tate was a retired farmer, and was 70 years of age.

Born at Luray, Kans. on August 16, 1884, he was the son of Charles and Ella Schurr Tate. He had made his home in the Glendo community previous to moving to Wheatland. He was a member of the Methodist church.

The Rev. J.B. Milstead and the Rev. L.J. Stevenson officiated at the services. Burial was in the Wheatland cemetery with J.W. Vaudrey, John Weimer, Joe Weimer, Harrison Peyton, James Payne and Elton Archie as pallbearers.

Survivors are his mother, Mrs. Ella Tate, Luray, Kans.; two daughters, Mrs. Velora Bitterman, Cheyenne and Mrs. Vivian Hageman, Blue Springs, Mo.; four brothers, John, Cheyenne, Dave, Luray, Kans., Clarence, Old Lime, Conn. and Harry, Lincoln, Kans.; three sisters, Mrs. Stella Flora, Luray, Kans., Mrs. Goldie Cullens, Burns, Ore. and Mrs. Valasta Cardwell, Pennsville, N.J.; two grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Mrs. Tate preceded him in death in October, 1953.