

TERMAN, FRANKLIN ALONZO

June 4, 1873-June 16, 1940

Funeral services will be held this afternoon for F.A. Terman, who died Sunday at his home in Wheatland.

Franklin Alonzo Terman was born June 4, 1873 at Larwill, Indiana, the son of William and LaMora Harrison Terman.

He was married Sept. 4, 1895 to Alice Grace Sappington at Larwill.

The family moved to Wheatland in 1909.

Death came quietly at the Terman home.

He leaves to mourn his loss his wife who stood by him and nursed him thru his many years of illness, three daughters, Mrs. F.C. Rossow of Broken Bow, Nebr., Mrs. E.J. Houseworth of Lander, Wyo.; Mrs. Donald Collins, Wheatland, and two sons Beryl of Casper and Ted of Montrose, Colorado and seven grandchildren.

One sister Mrs. Nellie Beard lives at South Whitley, Indiana.

After moving to Wheatland Mr. Terman worked in the mercantile business until illness forced him to retire. He has been an invalid since 1929.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon (Tues.) at 2 from the Congregational church with Rev. L.W. Flenner officiating. Interment will be made at the Wheatland cemetery.
