Mrs. Valentine died Thursday, July 2, at her home in Wheatland.

She was born August 21, 1917, in Wheatland, Wyo., the daughter of Homer M. and Etta (Hiatt) Curtis, Sr. She was reared and educated in Wheatland. On September 13, 1937, Lucille married James Otis Valentine in Berthoud, Colo. They made their home in the Antelope Gap country East of Wheatland and farmed. From 1956 - 1960 they lived in Nampa, Idaho where Lucille was a cook at the college. In June, 1960, they returned to Wheatland to farm and Mr. Valentine had the Grange Insurance Agency. Lucille was a member of the First Church of the Nazarene, East Town Club, Antelope Gap Grange, Wyoming Grange and National Grange. She enjoyed being on the farm, putting puzzles together and plastic canvas crafts.

Lucille is survived by her children, Glen Valentine and wife, Grace of Torrington, Wyo., and Wyoma Baker of Wheatland; a sister, Margaret Marshall of Wheatland; five grandchildren; and eleven great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband on August 25, 1977; parents; and a brother, Homer Curtis, Jr.

Serving as pallbearers were Jack Johnson, Lee Johnson, Vic Hessling, John Newton, Roy Foote and John Watson.

Memorials to First Church of the Nazarene, Building Fund, 1155 High Street, Wheatland, WY, 82201 would be appreciated by the family.

Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland was in charge of the arrangements.
