

VOLPE, JANETTA MACDONALD

July 1, 1908-December 31, 1980

Janetta MacDonald Volpe, 72, died Wednesday, Dec. 31, 1980 at the Platte County Memorial Hospital.

Janetta, the daughter of Hector and Janet MacCallum MacDonald, was born in Pictou Island, Nova Scotia, Canada July 1, 1908.

She was raised and educated in Pictou Island. After graduation from high school, she moved to Boston to take nurses training. She moved to Wheatland in 1937, and began working for Dr. James Allison, she worked for him for 27 years.

She was married to Marin Stephen Volpe in Douglas, May 10, 1938.

In 1964, she retired from nursing and resided here until the time of her death.

She was a member of the Nursing Association and the Wyoming Senior Citizens and a past member of the Order of Eastern Star.

She is survived by her brother, Reginald MacDonald of Montreal, Quebec Canada; two sisters, Jesses MacDonald of Toronto, Ontario, Canada and Jean MacKenzie of Truro, Nova Scotia, Canada.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Steve who died in September of 1968, two brothers, and three sisters.

Memorial services were held Monday, Jan. 5, 1918 at 10 a.m. at the Schrader-Prell Funeral Chapel. The Rev. Virgil Lamm officiated.

A memorial has been established to the Platte County Memorial Hospital.

The Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.