

Fred D. Wilson

8-30-1992

Funeral Services for Fred D. Wilson, will be held Wednesday, September 2, 1992 at 2:00 p.m. at the First Christian Church with Andy Gudahl, Minister, officiating. Interment will be in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mr. Wilson died Sunday, August 30, 1992 near Wheatland from an apparent heart attack.

He was born March 17, 1909 in Fairview, Oklahoma, the son of Leonard F. and Nelle (Burnett) Wilson.

He moved to Wyoming with his parents in 1911, and has remained a resident of Platte County until the time of his death. He was reared and educated in Wheatland, graduating from Wheatland High School in 1928.

He was married to Mary A. Williams on August 2, 1928 in Douglas. Mr. Wilson started farming with his father and lived in the Slater area until 1949 when he moved to Wheatland.

He was active in his farming operation up until the time of his death. He was a charter member of the Wyoming Flying Farmers, was an avid hunter and trap shooter in his younger years, and enjoyed bowling as well.

He is survived by his wife, Mary, of Wheatland, one daughter Wynona "Corky" Artery and son-in-law Kohn Artery both of Wheatland.

Other survivors include two brothers; Lloyd Wilson of Indiana and Raymond Wilson of Slater; three sisters Lorraine Russell of Wheatland, Bernetta Blevins of Rogers, Ark., and Lola Faulk of Tulsa, Oklahoma. Others include three grandchildren, David Artery, Dan Artery, and Linda Gebhart all of Wheatland, and seven great-grandsons.

He was preceded in death by his parents, one brother, Paul Wilson, and one sister, Elodia Yeagle.

Serving as pallbearers will be Darren Gebhart, Jeran Artery, Brian Artery, Brad Artery, and Brandon Gebhart, Damon Artery, and Jason Gebhart.

Serving as honorary pallbearers will be all his many friends.

A Fred D. Wilson Memorial Fund has been established and would be appreciated by the family.

The Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland was in charge of the arrangements.
